Nunnington Holiday Home

The well-equipped Riccal House Static Caravan is situated near the North York Moors on a private site in the orchard of a working family farm. There are open views in quiet secluded surroundings. There is easy access to the North York Moors National Park, the historic City of York, seaside resorts, a steam railway and many other attractions.

The static caravan has a gas fire, a flat screen TV / DVD and a radio in the lounge and a fully equipped kitchen with a full-size fridge, gas cooker and microwave. The master bedroom with double bed is fitted with wardrobes, cabinets and a dressing table with a mirror and shaving point. The second bedroom has twin beds with storage space. Bed linen can be provided on request.

There is a shower and toilet with hand washbasin. Hand towel and tea towels provided. Outside there is private parking for two family cars and a large lawned area where you can sit and relax. All gas and electric is included in the price quoted – there are no hidden extras.
